

PAINT THE TOWN 2025 PAINT OUT

February 28- March 2, 2025
Monroeville, Alabama

Our 5th Annual Paint the Town Paint Out will, once again be in conjunction to the Monroeville Literary Festival (MLF) and will be part of their schedule of events and share the Shop at 66 for the Wet Gallery and both the Literary Festival Banquet (Friday evening) and luncheon (Saturday) This means the sample works you bring will be on display at both of the aforementioned events. We will have an educational component for students from Monroeville Middle School this year so each participant needs to commit to painting on the “square” for at least one of the scheduled times Friday & Saturday. Additionally, it will give festival goers the opportunity to see you work while boosting exposure for the Wet Paint Sale. Our plan is to have a display space for wet paintings during the entire MLF so paintings can be dropped off as they are complete - details are still being worked out as to where this space will be. There will be monetary awards for Best of Show, Quick Draw (professional & amateur), Memorial Prizes and we will also have a purchase award.
