

PAINT THE TOWN 2025 PAINT OUT

February 27- March 1, 2025
Monroeville, Alabama

The 5th Annual Paint the Town Paint Out returns as part of the Monroeville Literary Festival (MLF), creating a dynamic celebration of art and literature in downtown Monroeville! This year, The Shop at 66 will serve as a shared space for both events, hosting the Wet Gallery, the Literary Festival Banquet (Friday evening), and the Literary Festival Luncheon (Saturday).

Throughout the festival, visitors will have the unique opportunity to watch artists in action as they paint around the historic Courthouse Square, bringing Monroeville to life on canvas. Art lovers can view and purchase fresh works at the Wet Paint Sale, with paintings on display throughout the festival. A dedicated exhibit space for completed pieces will be available, allowing attendees to see new works as they are finished.

Additionally, a special educational component will engage students from Monroeville Middle School, offering young learners a firsthand look at the artistic process.

The event will also feature monetary awards for participating artists including Best of Show, Quick Draw (Professional & Amateur), Memorial Prizes, and a Purchase Award—making this a must-see for collectors and art enthusiasts alike!

Join us for an unforgettable weekend of art, literature, and creativity in the heart of Monroeville!
